SPIRIT WEEK

HOMECOMING 2001

Leading up to the big game, spirit week is MCHS's way of getting all pumped up. No one can resist participating in these crazy days. The week started out with pajama/slipper day where everyone wore their most cuddley clothes. Tuesday was hat day, followed by sunglasses day on Wednesday. Thursday was a favorite for the Seniors, toga day. The underclassmen got to wear their class colors to show their spirit. On Friday the school united by wearing our school colors, orange and black. The grades competed by trying to earn the most spirit points. At the end of the week the points are added up, and combined with the points earned at the pep assembly to determine which class is the most spirited. The Senior class of 2002 won this year's competition. Everyone that participated had a ton of fun and have many memories to look back on.

All decked out in their traditional toga attire, Janel Schutt, Todd Gadowski, Jen Warwick, Adam Miller, Lyndsay James and Katie Stover all huddle together on the Senior's favorite spirit day.

As usual, Mike Welser is acting like a monkey.

Lesley Werden and Renee Arpan are taking a break from their busy schedules on hat day.

IF YOU HAD TO CREATE A NEW SPIRIT DAY, WHAT WOULD IT BE?

Selina Currier

"I would choose red, white, and blue day to show American spirit."

Theresa Kulman

"I would choose clash day, it would be fun not to match for once."

Josh Sobczak

"I would choose old school hip hop day, because I love the rhymes of De La Soul."

Kris Arseneault

"Something original, like inside-out day.

PEP ASSEMBLY

HOMECOMING 2001

On Friday, October 5th, 2001, the band marched through the halls at 1:20 p.m., kicking off the start of the 2001 Homecoming pep assembly. The whole student body rushed out of class and down to the gym to finish off spirit week and begin the cheering to defeat the Marysville Vikings.

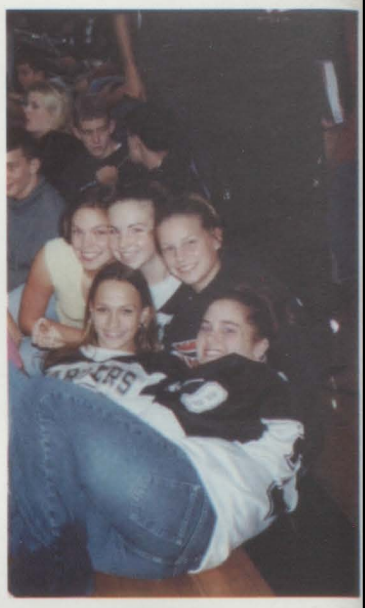

Beginning the assembly we all watched in awe as the princes and princesses made their way to the stage. Then, what everyone was waiting for, our Homecoming Queen Lindsey Schuhmacher and King Joe Rivard got their turn in the spot light.

After coronation we added a new twist to the pep assembly, the Air Band Contest. Beginning during spirit week, everyday at lunch, two or three Air Band groups competed for a top score to make it to the pep assembly. Groups of students would lipsync and dance to a song of their choice for thirty seconds, then the song would be switched randomly and the groups had to go with the flow as the music was switched randomly for another forty-five seconds. The top three teams made it to the pep assembly. The Girl Thugs, Jet's Crew, and The Spice Girls were the lucky winners. At the pep assembly all three teams performed. The Jet's Crew blew the others away, and The Spice Girls beat The Girl Thugs in a tie breaker to end up in second. The two winning groups would compete at the dance.

After the Air Band were the games. Freshman through Seniors, and even the teachers, competed in the musical chairs and the football pass. Classes worked together to achieve success.

Winding down after the games the cheerleaders did their cheers, and the classes showed their spirit and got the football players pumped up and ready to keep their undefeated record by beating the Vikings. The final bell rang, and everyone rushed out pumped and ready to cheer at the big game that night!

What a terrific turnout for the Homecoming Dance, 755 spectacular kids! That's Marine City High School Spirit! The DJ was the greatest, playing non-stop favorites while everyone danced the night away.

Talk about burning the floor, remember the Jet's Crew and the Spice Girls?! They sure had some moves in the Air Band Competition! It was a very close contest, but the Jet's Crew was victorious!

As tradition has it, the Senior Circle was formed. As the Seniors danced and enjoyed their moment in the spotlight. Their laughter turned to tears as they realized this would be their last MCHS Homecoming Dance. What wonderful lasting memories they all have created for themselves. Friendships and bonds made will surely last a lifetime. It was definitely a night not to be forgotten by anyone.

FLOAT BUILDING

HOMECOMING 2001

The week of Homecoming is filled with lots of fun. Float building is one of the many activities centered around the big event. Students work hard to complete their float before the quickly arriving deadline. Many long hours are spent devising up plans to create a winning float to beat the Senior's. This year's theme for the floats were movies.

Once all the floats are completed and displayed, they are judged by the staff members.

This year the winners were the Seniors with their outstanding creativity on their float "Night of the Living Mariners." Coming in second place were the Sophomores with their float which was "Honey We Shrunk the Kids." In third place were the Juniors with "Castaway", and the Freshman coming in last place with "The Patriot."

All of the floats were very creative and showed our school spirit in the winning game against Marysville. - Bastow

POWDERPUFF CHEERLEADING

2001

One of the most entertaining parts of the Junior & Senior Powderpuff game is not necessarily held on the field. The best part is the guys trying their hardest to perform as cheerleaders. The cheerleaders do their best to perform cheers and stunts that the original cheerleaders attempt to teach them.

During half time they put on their own show for the crowd. It usually consists of backflips, cartwheels, and other goofy things they come up with. It is very entertaining to see the guys cheer to get the crowd pumped up. Overall, they put on a great show! - Bastow

WHAT WAS YOUR FAVORITE PART OF BEING A CHEERLEADER IN THE POWERPUFF GAME?

Rob Hilderbrand

"Doing the stunts with Adam Basney, Joe DeSmyther, and Brett VanTiem."

Rob Wilburn

"Doing cartwheels and stuff in the halftime show."

Jim Bowden

"Messing around and having fun."

Steve Jurczak

"Doing the half time show."

POWDERPUFF GAME

HOMECOMING 2001

MCHS's annual powderpuff game took place on Otober 17th 2001. Even though many rules were bent and the refs helped out a little, the seniors defeated the Juniors. In the first half the Seniors were smashing the Juniors until Scar decided to help them out. A combination of tough practices and great coaching made this a game that everyone will remember. The score came out to be 36 to 28, but a couple of Junior's touchdowns were a little questionable, I am sure that we won't forget Josh White in drag running down the field. Good times were had by all and the Juniors raised $1,200 for prom, congratulations to everyone. - Kammer

DO YOU THINK THAT CHEATING MAKES THE GAME MORE INTERESTING?

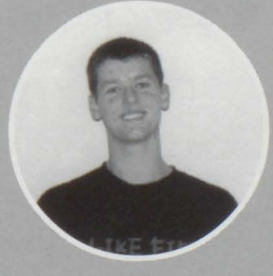

KATELYNN MACDONALD

"Not really, but I do think that being able to tackle would, pulling flags is weak."

MATT JONES

"Yes, I really think it makes things more entertaining."

ROBERT HICKS

"Yeah, but I think that they should actually be able to tackle."

JUDI STREETER

"It wouldn't matter whether the players cheat or not, the Seniors always win anyways."

WINTERFEST SPIRIT WEEK

BEACH PARTY

The week prior to the Winterfest dance was filled with all sorts of activities to get the student body excited for the dance and the big game. Spirit days are held to promote school spirit. Each grade competes against each other to see who has the most participants. Monday was Hat day, and Tuesday was Pajama day. Wednesday was Tomato day where each grade wore a different color. Freshman wore green, Sophomores wore yellow, Juniors wore orange, Seniors wore red, and Teachers wore black, representing each color phase of a growing tomato. Thursday was Hawaiian day where students wore anything from grass skirts to tropical shirts to leis. Friday was school colors day as usual. At the end of the week all points are added and compared. This year first place went to the Seniors, second place went to Sophomores, coming in third were the Freshman, and in last place were the Juniors. - Bastow

WINTERFEST PEP ASSEMBLY

BEACH PARTY 2002

The Winterfest Pep Assembly ends Spirit Week with a bang, and hypes everybody up for the upcoming dance. The cheerleaders and pep-band got the ball rolling, and got everybody on their feet with their school spirit and enthusiasm. The Winterfest Court for 2002 was announced, & crowned & sashed with flower leis. Then came the moment everyone was waiting for, .the games to begin. They consisted of tug-o-war, pineapple toss, the hula hoop pass, and who could hula hoop the longest. To make this final game a bit more interesting, a second hula hoop was added to each participant's waist. All participating staff and students had a blast, and gave it their all, but as always, the Seniors Ruled! - Gadawski

WINTERFEST DANCE

Beach Party

The theme for the 2002 Winterfest Dance was "Beach Party." There were decorations hung from wall to wall, floor to ceiling. Picture this...as you walk through the door you see fish and palm trees, and fish nets draped over the lockers. The stage looked the best yet, with gigantic blow up palm trees, and a hawaiian green grass skirt along the front. It was like a tropical paradise, with all the fruit punch you could drink, the palm trees, and all the vibrant colors everyone was wearing. As everyone entered the Dance, they were given a lei. The DJ was kickin', playing awesome music all night. Everyone who attended had an absolute blast, dancing the night away. No one wanted it to end. The Dance was put on by Student Government, and all the class officers. Thank you for doing such a wonderful job, it was defintely a night not to be forgotten. - Gadawski

THE LOTTERY

DRAMA 2001

On October 13th and 14th, the MCHS Players put on their first of this year's theatrical performances. The talented young actors and actresses, under the direction of James "Papa" McCulloch, put on a night of serious drama, featuring two one-act plays.

The first of McCulloch's debut plays was Shirley Jackson's "The Lottery," about a small farm town that holds an annual stoning ritual to ensure a good corn harvest. The play told the story of the Hutchinson family, who learn the real horror of meaningless tradition. Tessie Hutchinson eventually becomes the unlucky sacrifice, and is stoned by the other villagers, even her own husband and young son. The only person who refuses to participate is Belva Summers, who ends the play saying, "It takes real courage to fight prejudice on your own doorstep."

The second play preformed was Rapanti's "I Never Saw Another Butterfly". It was about Raja Engladerova, a young jewish girl growing up in Terezin, a work camp during the Holocaust. The story tells of Raja's struggle with her friends, faith, and identity during this horrible time in our nation's history. Both plays criticized the role of prejudice in society. During intermission and some scenes the A/V crew displayed terrifying images and movie clips that tackle discrimination, including American History X. The images related the theme of the plays to our present-day society, by showing controversial clips of the World Trade Center attacks. The evening ended with Raja pleading to the audience for help with the line, "I have hope in you," while the tech crew dropped paper butterflies depicting the word "HOPE" over the crying crowd. - Jandron

STUDENT LEADERSHIP

2001-2002

Leadership, as opposed to last year, focused more on "leadership" qualities. Last year they were in charge of the Homecoming and Winterfest Dances, and many other social events as well. # STUDENT GOVERNMENT

2001-2002

Beth Figlak helps set up for the Homecoming Pep Assembly.

Student Government is probably the hardest working groups at Marine City High School, but one of the least recognized.

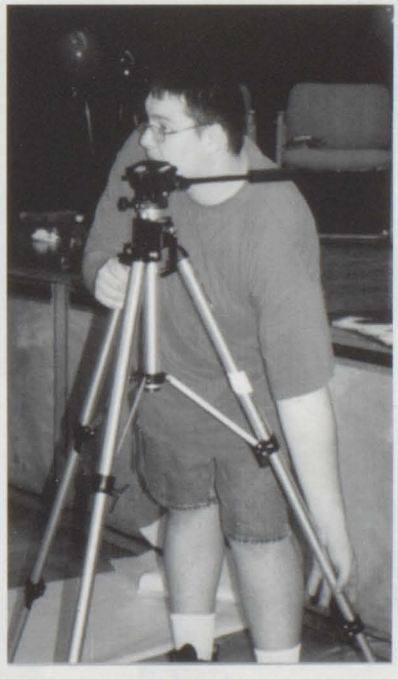

Throughout the past year, Student Government has put together many beneficial as well as entertaining events. Some of these are: The Homecoming, Winterfest, and MORP dances, two blood drives, the Staff vs Student Basketball Game, a new approach the the mock elections(Academy Awards), Charity Lock Up, and Principal's Week. All of the events were extremely successful. ## The Daly Show

A new fundraiser was put on this year by the Student Goverment. It was a Staff vs. Student basketball game. All week long both teams were at each others throats about the game to come. Thursday, November, 29th a large crowed gathered to see who would prevail! Lots of teachers came out to play and show their talent, dressed in their old converse with their shirts tucked in. Every Senior Varsity Basketball Player also showed up in their head bands and shorts ready to stand their ground. it was a hard fought game. The Seniors were up by one at half time. Thanks to the strong play of Mr. Daly, and the excellent shooting from Mr. Warkentien, the staff were victorious over the Seniors with a final score of 54-47.

T.A.T.U. stands for Teens Against Tobacco Use. This is a club designed for high school students who wish to become "peer educators" to fourth grade students across our district. Members of this organization receive training and a wealth of information from the American Lung Association to help them prepare lesson plans and strategies. Then they go out to each fourth grade classroom twice during the school year to reinforce the hazards of smoking. This is a fun way for students to get involved not only with people their age but also to help out younger peers. Teaching these children the risks of tobacco while making friends and having fun is their goal. - Ratusznik

Business Professionals Of America

The Business Professionals of America is an organization for students who excel in business. This year there were 56 members in the Marine City chapter. Marine City High School had the largest chapter in our region.

Throughout the year BPA put on many activities for the student body. They did adopt-a-family, and adopted three families during the holiday season. They also teamed up with NHS and ran a canned food drive that raised well over their goal.

BPA also took a field trip to New York City this year. The events of September 11th were a concern at first, but everything was worked out and it didn't stop the members from having a great time. It was a great time not only to learn about business but to make lasting memories with friends. - Ratusznik

They have helped out their community in many different ways such as sending birthday cards to Mallards Landing, organizing a drive for the Humane Society, collecting and incredible amount of canned food, adopting a stream, and raising money for such charities as the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. In order to join NHS, students had to be nominated and have a 3.3 GPA by their Sophmore year. Ana Raquel Policarpo

Our foreign exchange students this year were: Jana Buchheim from Germany, Maria Carolina Pardo from Brazil, and Ana Raquel Augusto Policarpo from Portugal. They all had a great time here at MCHS.

Jana joined us from Wipperfuerth, Germany. While staying here she was on the JV Girl's basketball team. According to Jana, "the best part about being in Marine City is that it is right by the river and winter was fun".

Maria Carolina came to MCHS from Sao Paulo, Brazil. She became involved in tap dancing at the Dance Force after school. Maria said "It's great here in Michigan because I can live by the river and I get to see snow because in Brazil, we don't have snow".

Our last exchange student is Ana Raquel who was from Lisboa, Portugal. Ana was on the Girl's Varsity Swim team and she also took ballet lessons. "It's quiet and everybody knows each other and is nice to each other". - Dueweke

Quiz Bowl is often an over looked competition. It is a game of knowledge and speed. The subjects vary in areas of study from math to T.V. trivia. Students practice every day at lunch Monday thru Thursday, with a game afterschool on Thursdays. Each match is broken up into two, 30 minute matches. In the match, two teams of four, face off for three, ten minute rounds. Every team plays the opposing team twice. They also have two tournaments at the end of the season.

Here at Marine City High School we have a Varsity and JV team. The Varisty team was coached by Mr. Homberg and the JV team was coached by Mr. Depa. The season this year was good for both Varisty and JV teams. The team captain for Varsity Quiz Bowl was Becky Buchholz. - Dueweke

Freshmen Football

The Mariners had a great year finishing with a 6-3 record.The Freshmen had a few of their players moved up to the J.V. The Freshmen team started off the season on the wrong foot with a loss to Caro. The Mariners came back strong with two straight wins over Eppler and Centerline. The Freshmen won four out of their last six games. They beat teams such as St.Clair and Marysville. They lost a close one to Shelby, the last game of the season.

The offense was led by Jerry Welsey and Kyle Pelzer. Jerry and Kyle hocked up on many touchdown passes over the season. You can not have a lot of passes without a strong line to protect you.

The defense was led by John Kuzma and Kevin Cherluck. John led the team in tackles.

The Freshmen were coached by Larry Rombach and Tim Dennis. Helping out were Dan Keever and Kieth Zimmerman.

The guys were always ready to take the court and earn another Mariner victory. With the players hard work and dedication it won't be surprising to see the guys come out strong and win many games next year.

The team played a total of twenty games from November to February. With it's long practices everyday the hard work paid off during the games. The boy's ended with a great record of 15-5. Although this was their first year of high school basketball you couldn't even tell. These young men have a lot to look foward to in the future. - Welser

CLASS OF 2002

Teacher Aides

What would the teachers do without them?

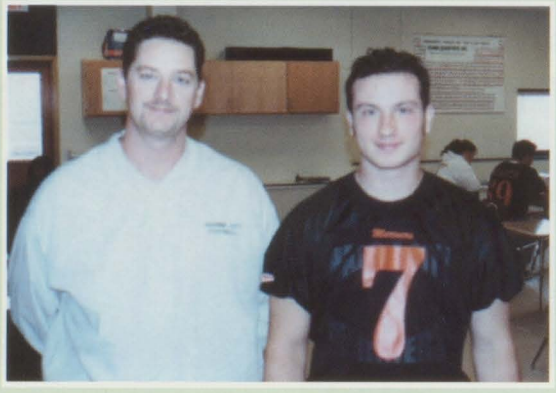

Even the best teachers occasionally need a little help. The teaching staff here at MCHS is certainly no exception. That is why every year they will each ask an upcoming Senior to be their teaching aid for the following year. In accepting this position the student willingly agrees to give up a hour of learning for the purpose of making things a little easier for the teachers. An average hour would consist of correcting, sorting, and copying all sorts of papers. Jobs that only a Senior could handle.
- Biewer and Markel

Mike Gangler copies off some important documents, a job only a Senior could possibly do.

"It's great being a TA, I had a lot of fun!"

Mike Gangler

Mr. Glodich and his fine example of an aid, Paul Christie take a moment out of class time to gratiously pose for the yearbook.

"I had a blast and learned how to use the riso!"

Paul Christie

Senior Kari Kammer is receiving another packet of homework to grade from Mrs. Sredich. Sorry Juniors, you'll have to wait till next year in order to get a task like this.

"Being a TA has given me much insight into the difficulties of being a teacher."

Kari Kammer

Correcting papers in the work room, Gina Sparger and Selina Currier seem as if they're over-worked with that huge stack of papers they each have.

"I like being a T.A. because it gives me one less hour of homework to do."

Gina Sparger

A long-lasting friendship between a mentor and an apprentice.

Above: Almost every hour of the day you could find Katie Phelps helping out in some way in the school office.

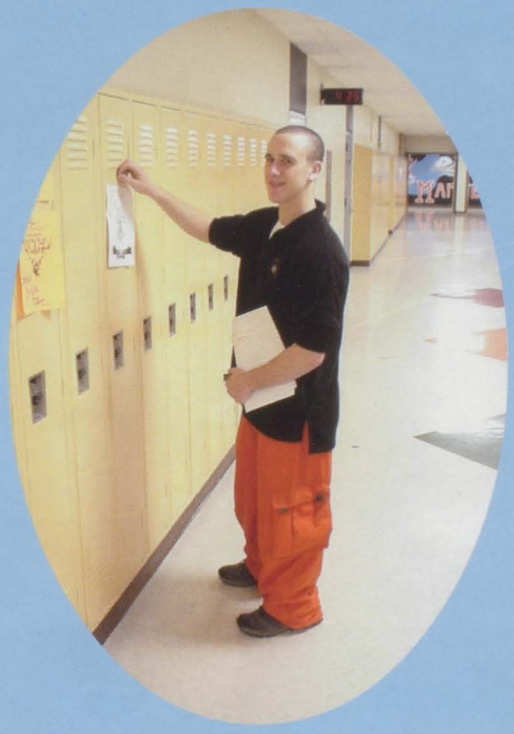

Above: Hard working Misty Demianenko has spent the entire year looking at nothing but books and computers. She spends most of her time typing up birthday announcements for the media center window. Plus, organizing the magazines as well as dusting off the rarely opened books. For this Mrs. Reichle loves her dearly and rewards her with animal crackers.
"I enjoy being the media center TA, because it has given Mrs. Reichle and myself the opportunity to become long lasting friends."

Above: Rochelle Gross helps Mrs. Pizzo every morning by shelving books and typing up important letters.

Below: Mrs. Shonk and Dana Martin have no problem showing off their love for one another.

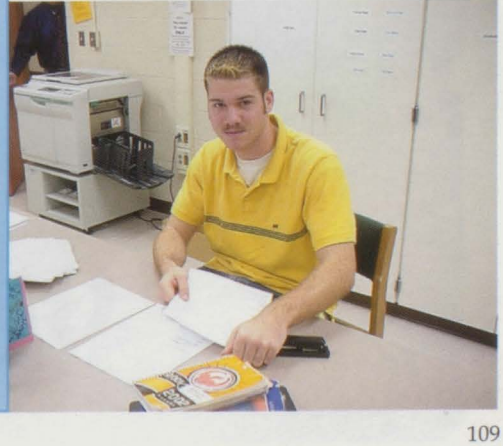

Above: If you ever have to have copies of music run off, just ask Brandon McQueer, he does it every day for Mr. VanDyke and never complains.

Above: Christine Shumate is always happy to laminate a poster for any teacher.

2004 Shows Their School Spirit The Week Of Homecoming

All week the Sophomore class was busy getting ready for their second exciting Homecoming at Marine City High School. They were finally able to put their float plan into action. With the theme of Homecoming as Movies, this year they chose to transform the movie "Honey I Shrunk the Kids" into the Mariner version of "Honey I Shrunk the Vikings." They were barely defeated by the Seniors when the judges awarded them second place. All those who participated in the float building said that they had a wonderful time, as you can tell from the photo at the top (from left to right: Taryn Weil, Stacey Stevens, Katie Dupre, Jacquelyn DuBois, Natasha Faucher). - Simons

Class of 2003

The Junior Class consists of 199 students. They started their year out with the Homecoming Dance. The theme for the dance was Movies. The Junior class chose Castaway for their float. Floatbuilding was held at Nicole Lindke's house. They took 3rd place with their creative float. The dance itself was one of the best yet. We went from there to the Junior vs. Senior Powderpuff Game. Everybody had a great time. This year's Junior Rock-a-Thon fundraiser for prom was a success. Next in line was the Winterfest Dance, which the theme was Beach Party. It was a blast. All in all, it was a great year. Only one more year to go, then we get to be at the top of the food chain again! - Trivett

Junior Rock-a-Thon

This year's 20th Annual Junior Rock-a-thon was a huge success. Since it is the last fundraiser before the prom dance, and the last chance to raise more money for prom activities, everyone tried their best to do what they could for pledges. Altogether, there were ten participants this year that managed to raise around $600 in one day for their cause. Good job guys!! - Trivett

Mary M. Yax

You came to us on 9-22-83 at 10:32 a.m. 9lbs. 10 1/2 oz. We knew the minute you were born you were one of our greatest gifts.

It seems like only yesterday that it was your first day in preschool. You cried and your tears broke my heart (as Mrs. Galvin signaled me to go). But you never knew I waited outside and peeking in making sure you were okay. You were playing and having fun, and meeting new friends. I knew from that day on it would be the first of many times I'd have to let you go.

Now that you are 18 and graduating, remember that we'll always be peeking to make sure you're okay. And we'll always be here if you need us. We're so proud of you. Never give up your dreams, and always follow your heart.

Love You Lots, Dad, Mom, & Carrie

Cassie Miller

Remember you always have our love and support.

Never lose your sense of wonder
Get your fill to eat, but always keep that hunger
Never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance

But they're worth taking
Promise me that you'll give fate a fighting chance
And when you get the chance to sit out or dance...
DANCE!

So, we see you've survived the "middle child syndrome." It's a good thing my strongest baby came in the middle, I don't think anyone else would have made it.
You have always had the courage to stand up for your beliefs and argue your point of view. You were never afraid to take a stand.
You are very loyal and trustworthy to your family, friends, and grandparents. We are proud of the choices you have made. Keep these qualities throughout college and life and you'll continue to experience happiness and success. We love you so much.

Katie,

So many people have told your dad and I what a wonderful girl you are, but we have known that since the day you were born. You have always shown kindness and caring to everyone around you. God has blessed us with a wonderful daughter. You deserve the best of what life has to offer. So remember whatever you do and wherever you go, we are just a heartbeat away. Always believe in yourself because we do! Shoot for the moon, and should you fall short, swing from the stars.

How precious a gift we've been blessed with.
Our daughter, our angel, our Jacquelyn.
You are so much more than the rhyme speaks of-

You are compassionate, thoughtful, shy, stubborn, moody, beautiful, joyful, boisterous, demanding, co-operative,
hard to understand & easy-to-please;
all together in one little, but powerful person-for which we are grateful for and very proud of!
May God bless you and guide you in all that you do.

Love forever,

of a new time in your life~
a time to begin experiencing greater independence,
a time to start thinking more about
your future.

The obstacles you will overcome,
the challenges you will face,
and the many decisions you'll have to make will have a major role in the adult you'll become and the lifeyou will lead.

As you you graduate,
know that you are loved.

Always. Unconditionally.
Follow your own heart.
Understand that persistance, hard work,
and determination are the keys to success.

Believe in your talents and abilities ,
for you are the only one who controls
your future,
and you are the only one who can make your dreams come true.

The time seems to have gone so fast,
You've been such a joy over the years,
Giving us memories that will always last.

Football, Basketball, and Pole Vaulting in Track,
We've enjoyed all the sports that you've played,
A team player in each and every of these,
Good sportsmanship you've always displayed.

We wish you fulfillment in all of your dreams,
A red Ferrari or 13-8,
Keep chasing your goals-we'll pray for you,
And God will determine your fate.

There is no task large or small
That you can't complete, you can do it all
Take one day at a time, don't live in the past
The future is yours, it's yours at last
No matter how many dark clouds try to get in your way
Push them aside and let in the sun's rays
Have faith in your commitments, always follow through
And never forget, that WE'RE VERY PROUD OF YOU
Live all your dreams, reach for that star
And always remember, who you really are
LIVE YOUR DREAMS

Elizabeth Pierson

An early Christmas gift to us all was you, you were truly a blessing! You tumbled into our lives full of smiles and giggles. As you began to grow, we noticed your curls and dimples first. We saw you off to school for the first time. Knowing you were making your mark on the world. You always keep us busy with your constant thirst for knowledge. We were proud to see you soar to the top of your class. The leadership roles you had, made us proud that you were our daugther. Variety was your middle name and we laughed but excepted each new style. Through all the years and all the experiences, we were proud mainly because you were you. For the most, we just believed in you and you soared all on your own. We believe you will continue to soar throughout life and we are proud you are a part of our family. We love you!!

Robert May

I am so proud of the young man that you have become. I know that military life was hard on you. Leaving friends and moving is never easy but you always made the best of it. You are my pride and joy and you will always be my little boy. Congratulations!

All my love, Mom

Sara Tennant

Loving, giving and talented in so many different ways. A true inspiration to your family. You have reached for the stars and touched them one by one. When things look the darkest, you never lost sight of your goal. Quitting just isn't your style. Keep that spirit and the world will be yours.

We Love You!
Dad, Mom, and Amy

Now that those "Varsity Blues" are over and the growth and change that has developed you into a fine young man take to heart and apply the lessons that "Remember the Titans" have taught you. "On Any Given Sunday" please pray and always keep the respect you have for yourself. Determination, faith, and hard work have brought you to this point in your life and we know that this will ensure your success in life.

Thank you Robert for being a part of our lives, for your love, support and dedication to the family. All of us are so very proud of you and wish you the best in life's journey.

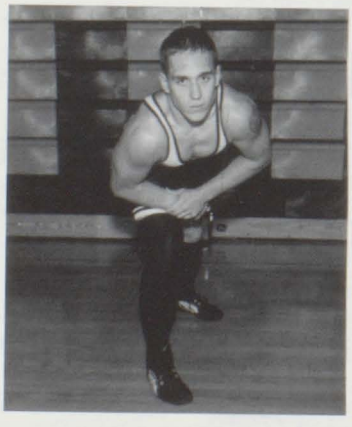

Your teammates in the game of life!

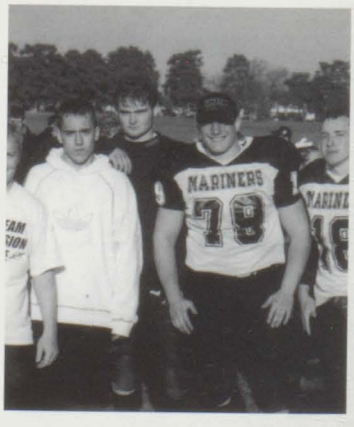

Katie, Leah, Lauren and Cole

Robert as you begin a new Journey it is your attitude more than anything else that will determine your success. Do for others with no desire of returned favors is a powerful ally to health and long life. Dream Big, Reach Far and if you feel your Life is headed in the wrong direction- remember God allows U-Turns.

We Love You- Mom and Pat

P.S. Your passion and aggression on the football field was an inspiration to all that has ever met you. Your courage and commitment to pin every opponent in wrestling was overwhelming however, taught your siblings to be brave. Your realistic outlook on life that got you over the hurdles on the track is refreshing. All of these attributes will help you in your pursuit of excellence. It is wonderful to have a Winner as yourself for our son.

Robert Hilderbrand

Robby,

My Prayer for you is that you won't forget to follow in Jesus' Loving ways. That you will give from your heart with Peace and Patience.

You have grown to be a spectacular young man, one that we all are proud of. You have walked through difficult times like a man. The challenges you set for yourself, you have met. You are strong, motivated, and have always kept a positive attitude so, when life doesn't bring you what you want, press forward and look to God, for dark clouds of turbulence will not last long. Remember Son, who you are and what you believe, Grandpa and I will still love you more than life.

Grandma, Proverbs 3:5 & 6

James C. Burt

Dear Jay,
Your determination, courage, wisdom,
humor and caring will always give you strength to meet each challenge, and achieve your dreams.
God is with you.
It is a special joy to share your life.
Thank you, Sunshine.
Love, Mom

We celebrate the spring day when first you entered our world, grasped Life by the hand and began a joyous dance to every tune Fate played.

Eagerly, confidently you've stepped to Center Stage or Center Court and taken your best shot. Greeting success and setback with equal grace, the only reward you've sought is to take part in the experience and celebrate the camaraderie.

The source of your unfaltering Irish smile is the affection of wonderful friends, the richness of your varied opportunities, good character braced by courage and optimism, and the unwavering support of a loving family.

Given the chance, Katie Scarlett, always dance. Keep your heart open to the music of life and celebrate the day! We will always wait for you to be "safe, home again" at the farm, but this world has need of the likes of you. Go, celebrate your future.

The Talents of MCHS

BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS OF AMERICA

On April 25, 2002 the Business Professionals of America hosted their sixth annual talent show. The talent show was one of the biggest fund raisers yet for BPA. It helped send state qualifiers Jim Biewer and Anthony Gismonde to the BPA national competition held in Chicago. Jim Biewer, not only a national competitior was also emcee of the show. Many people came out not only to support BPA, but also to view the incredible talents of MCHS. The familiar voices that the crowd heard were those of Melissa Miller and Lori Koehn, who come back year after year to "wow" the audience with their performances. Not all of the acts were taken seriously however. The first performance that got everyone laughing was the Varsity Softball underclassmen singing their best rendition of LeeAnn Rimes. They were even able to hit quite a few of the ear-screeching high notes. Another hilarious act was the group dancing to "Wiggly, Wiggly Christmas." The many participants of the night sang their hearts out, while others performed dance acts and as tradition, a couple of bands displayed their musical talents. The night ended with the crowd cheering and clapping for the many talents of MCHS. - Dietlin

The team was lead by captains Lindsey Schuhmacher, Cassie Miller, and Kourtnie Zimmerman. The team put forth many hours of practice which didn't go unrewarded. They tied for the MAC Gold with Lakeshore and took first place in districts. The girls had a wonderful season and they should be very proud of themselves. Mr. Osterland put forth much of his time into coaching the softball team and with all of his dedication he put together an excellent team. Great job this year for all of the many accomplishments and good luck next year to all of the girls. ~Markel

The Marine City Baseball Team had a successful season this year. Their league record was 6-6 in the MAC Gold Division and overall 13-10. While these numbers may not sound too impressive, the season included several high points. The Mariners won the Cass City Tournment and, they also had close wins against St. Clair and Clintondale, which both ended 4-3. Several Mariners enjoyed their outstanding season. Thus including Doug Lindow who posted a 5-3 record from the mound leading the Mariners to several key victories. Shaun Phelan turned in his usual performance hitting 4 homeruns, and making several game, saving, pitches in the outfield. For his efforts and devotion, the team voted him best offensive/defensive player, along with MVP. Also Steve Stanek turned up his performance in the second half of the year. Coach Longuski is looking forward to next year, so he can see the return of some rock solid players, such as Scott Uppleger, Jesse Allagreen, Skyler Verhelle and Mike Welser. - Arpan

Varsity Girls' Soccer

The Varsity Girl's Soccer Team had an outstanding season. They finished the season with a 11-1 record. Also contributing were Tina Ratusznik, Katie Gross, Megan Stephens, and Lindsey Watson. Teresa Yax and Victoria Vintevoghel played fantastic Mariner defense... and who could forget Beth "The Wall' Figlak in goal! Also helping the team out were Team Trainer, Mr. Ratusznik, and Team Managers, Amye Folske and Jordan Uppleger. The captains that lead the team to this victorious season were Seniors, Beth Figlak, LIndsey Watson, Becky Yax, & Tersesa Yax. Congrats and good luck next season. - Gadawski
